

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you" Matthew 7:7

Administrative Personnel Association Hosts 2009 Certification Event and National Conference Orlando, Florida, July 12-19, 2009

The Administrative Personnel Association (APA) will offer a weeklong Certification Event from July 12-19, 2009. This event will be in conjunction with the National Conference taking place July 16-19, at the Regal Sun Resort in downtown Walt Disney World. Members of APA may complete any one of three levels of certification in Church Administration. (Only members are eligible for certification; all others will receive a certificate of completion). This conference is open to anyone and offers professional development, spiritual renewal, and networking opportunities in the challenging and rewarding world of church administration.

Some of the course offerings are:

- Coaching and Mentoring Skills for Successful Leadership
- Financial Planning
- Sexual Harassment
- The Church and Copyright Law

There will also be an entire day of intermediate level technology classes in Microsoft PowerPoint, Excel, Publisher and Access.

This event is "family-friendly," offering child-care services and discounts at many Orlando-area attractions. For complete conference details along with information on how to join APA, please visit our Web site at www.pcusa-apa.org.

The Administrative Personnel Association (APA), established in 1976, is a professional organization created for employees of churches and other Presbyterian governing bodies. Through its educational events, members gain expertise in all fields associated with their position(s) within the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). It is a group that strengthens lives both spiritually and professionally.

Plan to join us in Orlando!